Fourteenth Annual State Employee Art Exhibit

December 5, 2011 to January 6, 2012

The Annual State Employees Art Exhibit is open to any current or retired state employee. Work will be exhibited in the Atrium Gallery at One Capitol Hill, located on the first floor of the Powers Administration Building. Artists may submit up to four entries. Works must be original, properly framed (not just matted) and wired for hanging on a flat wall surface. Call or visit our web site for specific information and an application form.
