

Are you thinking about organizing a new cultural event to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month?

Do you wish you could stretch your marketing budget for an annual Hispanic Heritage Month event?

Are you a local restaurant or business that wants to be listed as a participating venue for Hispanic Heritage Month?

Attend an informational meeting about the 2010 Latino CommUNITY Celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month!

May 18, 2010 at 5:30 p.m.

Ada's Creation's

1137 Broad Street, Providence, RI

RSVP by May 14 | www.hispanicheritageri.org

Hispanic Heritage Month is an annual celebration of Hispanic Americans' contributions to the United States that takes place every September 15 – October 15.

Rhode Island's Latino CommUNITY Celebration is a collaborative marketing effort designed to promote activities taking place locally during the national observation of Hispanic Heritage Month.

The partnership aims to showcase the art, culture, and history of our diverse Latino community.

Co-Presenters:

