Application Number: FY2014-16049 Grant: $550.00

Description:

The Art Connection-RI (TAC-RI) receives donated original art and will provide an opportunity for community service nonprofits to select original art for permanent placement on their walls. Five qualified agencies - Progreso Latino in Central Falls, RI Free Clinic and the new Providence Neighborhood Health Center in Providence, Blackstone Valley Health Center in Pawtucket, and East Bay Community Action Program Health Center in Newport - have applied to TAC-RI for art. Each organization will form a committee of staff and constituents to select the art from an on-site slide presentation. Many of those without regular access to art will discuss and choose art. Once the art is installed, the nonprofits are asked to hold an artists reception, so that the donors can see their work in place and how much it is appreciated by the recipients. Our goal is to grow the TAC-RI to serve community service agencies throughout the state. In order to be successful, we must engage more artists and continue to demonstrate the value of what we do.
